VISIT HENDRICKS COUNTY

Why travel to faraway stadiums and gyms for sports events when we have the facilities, the people and the know-how to hold those events right here in Hendricks County?

Giving your team an assist in marketing and promoting all types of sports events

BRINGING HOME THE PRIZE

Give your event and Hendricks County home-field advantage.

Contact us today for more information or to begin planning your sports event.

Whether it's an existing event you want to grow or a new event you want to bring to the area, Visit Hendricks County can provide you with home-field advantage by helping you professionally market and promote local, regional, statewide or national events at your facility or through the community.

Plus, we can help you apply for financial support through Sports Indiana (Sports Tourism Business Development Grants) and the Visit Hendricks County TED Fund.

Let's work together to bring home the prize to Hendricks County. Let's sit down and talk.

"Visit Hendricks County plays a vital part in educating managers and representatives of sports venues and events on team logistics, event meeting space, online booking tools, and hotel selection. Then, they work with the event to provide logistics assistance, welcome bags, name badges and whatever they need for a successful event."

“The great thing about Hendricks County is that everything is right here—parks, shopping, restaurants, a first-class sports complex, hotels and more. We’ve had a great response from the families who have visited here for the tournament.”

Diana Blacha, Committee Member
Westside United Tournament, Plainfield, Indiana
Voted 2011 Tournament of the Year by Indiana Soccer

“Visit Hendricks County helped us promote, organize, market and provide information for the Hendricks County Half Marathon. The staff is great to work with and I would recommend them to anyone organizing an event.”

Nate Phipps
Sports Coordinator
Danville (Indiana) Parks and Recreation

“Our event went off better than expected with more than 200 participants. I didn’t understand the magnitude of what Visit Hendricks County could do for us in supporting our event. We wouldn’t have been as successful without their help.”

Lance Simon
Founder and Organizer
Mud Soap Run, Danville, Indiana
