

Florio Field at the West End: a 5,700-seat baseball stadium modeled after Fenway Park

When it comes to sports destinations, Greenville's a home run.

"2nd Best Active Town Ever"

- Outside Magazine

"Top Six Hot Spots for Travel (In the World) 2015"

- CBS This Morning

"Best Small City for Cycling"

- Bicycling Magazine

"Top 10 Best in the U.S."

- Lonely Planet

When it comes to hosting local, regional and national sporting events, everyone seems to think Greenville is bringing its "A" game! We've become one of the Southeast's hottest destinations for all things sports, offering a friendly, 4-season climate that's ideal for athletes, spectators, families and friends alike. With a remarkable collection of restaurants, theatres, outdoor entertainment, shops and museums and hotels to meet every budget, Greenville, SC has earned a track record of success. That's why we're not just any Greenville – we're that Greenville! Learn more online or call us at 800-351-7180.

yeah, that greenville™
visitgreenvillesc.com

VisitGreenvilleSC.com 800.351.7180

g) visitgreenvillesc®

Things you've gotta KNOW about that Greenville!

yeah, that location!

Easy by car

- Convenient Southeast location
- Centrally located between Atlanta and Charlotte on I-85, with effortless interstate access
- Easy travel throughout destination

Convenient by air

- 49 daily, non-stop departures to 15 major U.S. cities
- Service by six major carriers
- $100 million expansion underway at Greenville-Spartanburg International Airport (GSP)
- Located 20 minutes from downtown yeah, that destination!

More than 80 places to rest your head. From luxurious full-service to budget-friendly and everything in between.

Accommodation Highlights

- More than 8,500 convenient hotel rooms
- 850+ new rooms to be added by 2017

Destination Highlights

- Vibrant, safe, walkable downtown
- 600 restaurants, 100+ unique to downtown
- Countless big city amenities and things-to-do activities
 - Museums, galleries, theatres, shopping, guided tours, spectator sports and more
- Expansive outdoor recreation playground
 - Golf, whitewater rafting, parks, hiking, biking
- 18.7-mile GHS Swamp Rabbit Trail welcomes walkers, runners and cyclists
- Sports/recreational facilities and natural amenities county-wide yeah, that venue!

Indoors, outdoors, or no doors, we've got the sports venue you need!

Bon Secours Wellness Arena

- 15,000-seat sports and entertainment arena
- Excellent for mat sports – arena floor measures 113' x 229'
- A short walk from downtown

Westside Aquatics Center

- Dynamic, state-of-the-art facility
- (8) 50-meter lanes or (20) 25-yard lanes
- Paddock Chloramine Evacuator System removes chlorine odor
- Swimming, water polo, kayaking, triathlons

Furman University

- Advanced athletic facilities handle sports including basketball, soccer, football, baseball, tennis, golf, and more

TD Convention Center

- 280,000 sq. ft. of available exhibition/competition space
- Ideal for mat sports
- Additional 60,000 sq. ft. of meeting space

MeSA Soccer Complex

- Premier 62-acre athletic tournament complex
- 16 multi-purpose, lighted rectangular fields
- Concessions, restrooms, playgrounds yeah, that championship!

When we say we've hosted some major championships, we mean it. Take a quick look at this list of recent events we've welcomed to Greenville, SC:

- 2015 USA Cycling Professional Criterium Nat'l Championships & Team Time Trials
- 2015 USA Swimming Southern Zone Age Group Championships
- 2015 B.A.S.S. GEICO Bassmaster Classic
- 2014 National Softball Association Eastern Girls Fast Pitch World Series
- 2014 US Youth Soccer President's Cup
- 2013 Men's Collegiate Lacrosse Association National Championships
- 2013 Southern Conference Baseball Championship
- 2013 USA Karate Nationals & US Team Trials

Visit GreenvilleSC.com 800.351.7180

