Area amenities and attractions

SRSC provides visitors a blend of amenities and suburban hospitality. Located in the foothills of the beautiful Blue Ridge Mountains our region offers over 2,000 hotel rooms, outdoor activities, family-friendly attractions, performing arts, museums, numerous restaurants and shopping – all with easy access to the Sports Complex. Plus, the region features everything from NASCAR and historical sites to the Blue Ridge Parkway and nightlife.

Located:

The SRSC is centrally located on the East Coast in Martinsville-Henry County (M-HC). M-HC is on the southern border of Virginia and covers 385 square miles. This thriving community is conveniently positioned within a day's drive to 60% of the U.S. population, and is strategically located within 50 miles of the major metropolitan areas of Roanoke, Virginia and Greensboro, North Carolina.

Four-lane U.S. highways 220 and 58 intersect in Martinsville. U.S. 220 connects the Roanoke Valley and the Piedmont Triad. Highway 58 runs from the Atlantic Ocean at Virginia Beach to Tennessee, along Virginia's Southside.

Travel:

The Piedmont Triad International Airport (GSO), located 45 minutes to the south in Greensboro, NC has over 100 daily departures, including service from USAir, United, Delta, Continental and American Airlines.

Roanoke Regional Airport (ROA), 50 minutes to the north, has approximately 50 daily departures, including jet service from USAir and United Express and regional service from Delta, American and Northwest Airlines. UPS operates a regional hub adjacent to the airport.

Blue Ridge Regional Airport in Henry County is a 24-hour-a-day fixed base operation with a 5,000-foot lighted runway.
